

AWRA is pleased to announce the opportunity for up to six (6) attendees from low-income countries to receive waived registration fees for each of the AWRA 2024 Conferences. Each applicant must meet the below requirements:

1. Join AWRA as a Professional Member or renew an active Professional Membership when it is due.
2. Agree to make at least one oral or poster presentation at the associated conference.
3. Agree to participate through all or most of the conference, not limited to their own presentation.

To be considered, please answer/provide information for EACH section below. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed. Please note this is a competitive application and not all those who apply will be accepted. We strongly encourage you to take your time and answer all the questions thoughtfully.

Return this completed document by February 23, 2024 to Ariel Wise, AWRA Manager of Events & Meetings, at events@awra.org.

Describe your current professional position and home institution.

What are your reason(s) for requesting financial assistance?

What are the benefits of you attending the AWRA Conference, your home institution, and your career?